7. PORT STEPHENS COUNCIL SALARY SYSTEM

7.1 Our Salary System

7.1.1 People come in different shapes and sizes – and so do jobs. When you put them together you have different kinds of people doing different kinds of jobs. The question is "how do you work out what to pay people for the different kinds of work they do"?

Basically, the bigger the job the more it will get paid. So we must have a way of deciding the 'size' of each job in Council.

We do this by following the four steps that make up our salary system.

Step 1	Step 2	Step 3	Step 4
Determining the size of each job	Determining the number of grades in our salary structure	Developing a salary range for each grade in the structure	Determining how people progress through the range

7.1.2 Step 1 – Determining the size of each job

The system that we use for deciding the size of each job in Council is the Mercer Job Evaluation System. This system expresses the worth of a position in 'work value points'. These points are determined by assessing eight sub factors, which are based on a systems approach to understanding jobs. This approach considers all jobs in terms of:

- 7.1.2.1 the inputs required for the positions. These are defined in terms of the skills, knowledge and experience needed to do the job. This is referred to as EXPERTISE.
- 7.1.2.2 the processes involved in carrying out the functions of the job. These are defined in terms of the complexity of tasks, and the requirement for resolving problems. This is referred to as JUDGEMENT.
- 7.1.2.3 the outputs required for the position. These are defined in terms of the impact, influence and independence of the position. This is referred to as ACCOUNTABILITY.

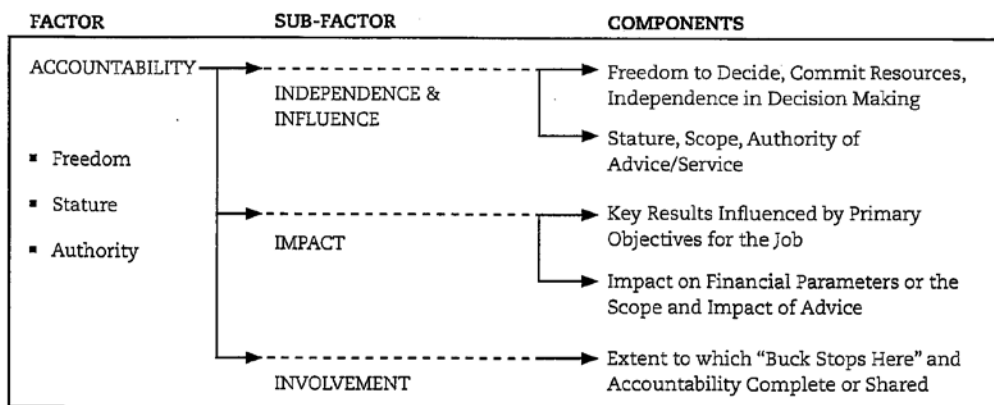

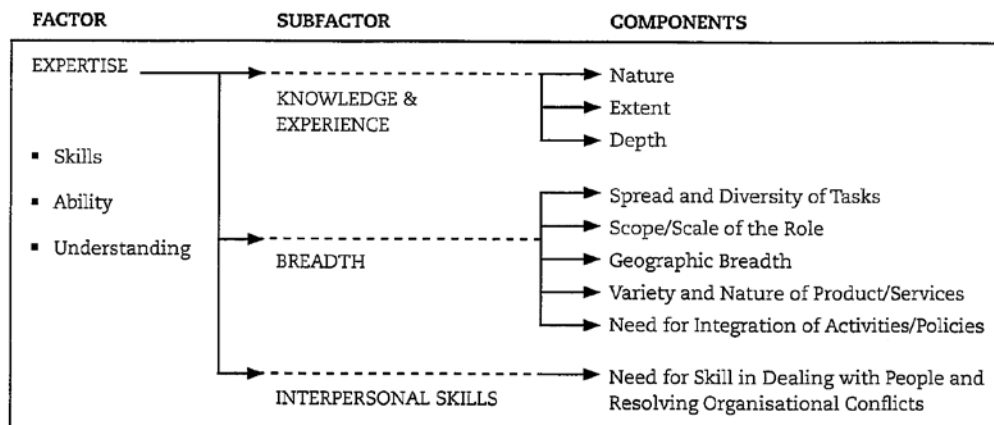

Remember that job evaluation focuses on the actual requirements of the position, not on a person or their performance.

7.1.3 The Role of the Job Evaluation Team

A team of six trained staff representing various areas across Council make up our Job Evaluation Team. When a position is evaluated, at least three members of the JET use the information provided by the position description and a job expert to assess the position. All panel members must have completed training in the Mercer JE System in order to evaluate a position.

An introduction to the Mercer CED Job Evaluation methodology/system

To evaluate a position, assessments are made for each of the eight subfactors. These subfactors are:

An introduction to the Mercer CED Job Evaluation methodology/system

Each subfactor has from three to eight levels. The definitions for each level determine how a position rates on each subfactor.

7.1.4 Step 2 – Determining the Number of Grades in our Structure

Council's salary system has 24 salary points. Positions are placed in a salary point depending upon their evaluated 'work value points'. Positions that have the same work value points have the same salary point.

7.1.5 Step 3 – Determining the Remuneration Range for each Salary Point

Our remuneration range consists of four levels.

Level 4	Market Premium/Business Criticality
Level 3	Competent Performance
Level 2	Development Required -
Level 1	Entry Level

Level 1 is an entry level for new incumbents to a position or incumbents with significant development needs.

Level 2 represents a minimum level rate of pay which is 92.5% of the median of the range. Most new employees will commence at Level 2.

Level 3 represents competent performance for an incumbent displaying at least 90% of the criteria required for the position.

Level 4 is provided for market premiums, business criticality, additional skills required. The Human Resources Unit should be consulted to determine the appropriate rate for critical workforce segment positions eligible for Level 4 consideration, as only a portion of Level 4 may be payable, dependent on market conditions.

7.1.6 Our Market

Our market data is based on the Mercer annual survey of the local government sector in Australia. This provides us access to the most current and up to date salary information available in the local government sector.

7.1.6.1 Level 3 – Local Government Median

Our salary system has adopted the median of the local government market represented by Level 3 of each Salary Point as the normal maximum remuneration for each grade. This is adjusted annually based on the annual survey results.

In this market review the salary point is evaluated against the market data. This means we look median of the salary point and assess what the local government market is paying for positions of the same work value range. This is completed using the Mercer iRems system.

7.1.6.2 Level 4 Market Assessment – Critical Segment Positions

In July each year, a review of positions identified in the critical segment is undertaken. Positions identified in the critical segment are reviewed each year by the Executive Leadership Team as part of the Workforce Planning process.

Positions which are identified as critical meet the following conditions:

- high risk in terms of skills that are potentially difficult to replace, or
- have a significant impact on the community and organisational value

In this market review the actual position is evaluated against the market data. This means we look specifically at the work value points and position type for the identified position and assess what the local government market is paying for positions of the same work value and type. This is completed using the Mercer iRems system.

For an incumbent in a critical position to be entitled to a market adjustment, they must be at Level 3 (fully competent). If the incumbent is at Level 3 and if a position is identified in the critical segment then the current rate of pay for the incumbent is assessed against the market rate. If the market rate is higher than the Level 3 rate or the individual's current rate of pay, we increase the rate of pay to a maximum of the top of Level 4 to meet the market conditions. This means the incumbent may receive no increase or an increase of between 1% and 15% above the Level 3 rate, dependent upon market conditions.

This process is captured in the process flowchart entitled Market Review – Critical Positions.

7.1.6.3 Level 4 – Other Determinations

The General Manager may, on occasion, determine that Council will pay an amount outside of the salary system to attract and/or retain an individual in a critical position.

7.1.7 Step 4 – Determining how people progress through the range

Progression through the grade will depend upon demonstrated competence at Levels 1, 2 and 3 within the grade. The recognised competency framework developed using the DDI behavioural and technical competencies will apply with employees required to evidence how they met the competencies in order to progress.

New employees will normally be assessed at either Level 1 or 2 as they enter the organisation, dependent upon their level of technical skill. At the end of the probationary period, employees will be assessed again with any increases to be back dated to their date of commencement.

Any competencies that have not been achieved need to be reflected in a development plan and fed into the individual's IW&DP.

A payment above the median of the range is reserved for market premiums for roles that are identified throughout our workforce planning process as critical workforce segments as detailed in 7.1.6.1.

7.1.8 Total Remuneration Package

Total remuneration includes base salary, superannuation, motor vehicles including commuter use, allowances, staff bonus and weekend penalty rates. It does not include overtime. The rates of pay as outlined in salary system reflect base salary only.

A total remuneration model ensures that comparisons within the local government market and general market are relevant.

7.1.9 How do staff receive salary increases

There are four main ways in which you can receive a salary increase.

1. A significant increase in your job responsibilities, which will result in a higher evaluation for your changed position and therefore a higher salary range. A completed Re-evaluation Form, copy of the old position description and a copy of the updated position description must accompany any request for a re-evaluation. Re-evaluations will not occur as a result of market increases.
2. A promotional increase to a new position to which you have been appointed.
3. An upward revision of salary ranges, resulting from changed market factors assessed annually.
4. An increase payable under this Agreement.

7.1.10 Workers Compensation

An employee's current weekly rate of pay for the purposes of the Workers Compensation Act, 1987 shall be the rate paid to the employee under the salary system.

7.2 Rates of Pay

7.2.1 Base Rates

The base rates of pay applicable are outlined in the salary system.

Rates of pay and allowances will be increased in accordance with the following table:

	First Pay Period 1/07/2015	First Pay Period 1/07/2016	First Pay Period 1/07/2017
Increases	2.7%	2.8%	2.8% or the Local Government (State) Award, whichever is the greater.

7.2.2 Retention Allowance

7.2.2.1 38 Hour Per Week Staff

38 hour per week staff will receive an allowance, to be known as the Retention Allowance, in December each year. The allowance will be increased each year in line with increases determined in this Agreement as detailed in the Allowances Table of this Agreement.

7.2.2.2 35 Hour Per Week Staff

35 hour per week staff will receive an allowance, to be known as the Retention Allowance, in December each year. The allowance will be increased each year in line with increases determined in this agreement as detailed in the Allowances Table of this Agreement.

7.2.2.3 Part-time Staff

For part-time staff the allowance is paid on a pro-rata basis, according to the number of hours actually worked per week. This includes those staff who have returned from parental leave in a part-time capacity.

7.2.2.4 Eligibility

To be eligible for the allowance, an employee must be employed by Council on the date the allowance is paid. Employees whose employment is terminated the calendar year are not entitled to a pro-rata payment.

Employees with less than 12 months service receive the allowance on a pro rata basis for that year, calculated to the number of whole months employed. For example, a person commencing employment on 20 May would receive 7/12 of the allowance amount.

Employees who take unpaid leave during the year will have the Retention Allowance shall be paid on a pro-rata basis according to the number of hours actually worked during the year.

7.3 Higher Duties Pay

7.3.1 The parties are committed to improving skill levels and removing impediments to multi skilling and broadening the range of tasks that the employee is required to perform.

7.3.2 The Council may direct the employee to carry out such duties that are within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training.

7.3.3 An employee shall be paid the salary system rate of pay that recognises the skills the employee is required to apply on the job.

7.3.4 The skills paid for shall not be limited to those prescribed by the position description and may, where appropriate, include skills possessed by the individual which are required by Council to be used as an adjunct to the employee's normal duties.

7.3.5 Employees who are required by Council to use additional skill(s) such as:

7.3.5.1 languages other than English, or

7.3.5.2 signing services to those with hearing difficulties

In the performance of their duties shall have the use of these skill(s) considered in the evaluation of the position.

7.3.6 An employee required to relieve in a position which is at a higher level within the salary system shall be paid for that relief at the higher salary point. The rate to be paid shall be determined by demonstrated competence at the salary point the employee is relieving in. Should this be less than their current rate of pay, 50% of the difference between the employee's current level in their salary point and the same level in the relieving salary point shall apply. An employee, if acting in a position for more than six months, will be paid at least the competent level of the higher salary point, excluding acting section manager and acting group manager positions, which will be assessed using the salary assessment process.

7.3.7 Higher Duties Annual Leave Allowance

An allowance equal to the difference between the higher duties rate of pay and the employee's substantive rate of pay, multiplied by the annual accrual factor per hour (.076923) for the time relieving in the higher paid position shall be paid. All paid leave and Agreement holidays are then paid at the employee's substantive rate of pay.

7.3.8 An employee who is required to relieve in a senior staff position, so designated under the Local Government Act 1993 (NSW), shall be paid an appropriate rate of pay commensurate with the duties and responsibilities of the relief work undertaken.

7.3.8.1 Section managers relieving in a group manager position will receive the same base rate of pay as the group manager for which they are relieving.

- 7.3.11 An employee requested to undertake specifically nominated duties and responsibilities less than the whole job, shall be paid a negotiated allowance, that may be less than the entry level of the relieving position. The amount of the negotiated salary is determined by considering:
  - 7.3.11.1 the extent of the responsibilities to be undertaken relative to the whole job; and
  - 7.3.11.2 the level of skill, knowledge, qualification and experience accredited to the employee.

7.5 Annualised Salaries

Council will consider an annualised salary for those positions whereby fluctuation occurs considerably from week to week based on the number of hours worked and when the hours are worked. An annualised salary can create an environment where employees will work efficiently throughout the normal hours of work and assist in overtime arrangements where applicable. In addition, an annualised salary may be tailored to more flexible working hours and arrangements.

- 7.5.1 Annual salary instead of Agreement provisions
Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the employer and an employee may agree that the employer may pay the employee an annual salary in satisfaction of any or all payments arising under the following provisions of the Agreement:

15. LEAVE PROVISIONS

15.1 Personal Leave – Sick Leave and Carers Leave

15.1.1 An employee is entitled to 15 days paid personal leave during each year of employment, subject to the following conditions:

- 15.1.1.1 the Council shall be satisfied that the sickness is such that it justifies the time off; and
- 15.1.1.2 that the illness or injury does not arise from engaging in other employment.

15.1.2 Personal leave is:

- 15.1.2.1 paid leave (sick leave) taken by an employee because of a personal illness, or injury, of the employee; or
- 15.1.2.2 paid or unpaid leave (carer's leave) taken by an employee to provide care or support to a member of the employee's immediate family, friend, neighbour or a member of the employee's household, who requires care or support because of:

- (1) a personal illness, or injury, of the member; or
- (2) an unexpected emergency affecting the member and where no other person is available to provide such support.

15.1.3 Notice must be given to the employer as soon as reasonably practicable (which may be at a time before or after the leave has started) that the employee is (or will be) absent from his or her employment. This provision does not apply to an employee who could not comply with it because of circumstances beyond the employee's control.

15.1.4 To be entitled to paid personal leave, the employee must complete a leave form signed by their supervisor and forward it to payroll for processing.

15.1.5 The employee is not required to provide a medical certificate to claim personal leave. However, the employer may require an employee to provide medical evidence to support a claim for personal leave in the event that:-

- 15.1.5.1 More than 15 days leave is claimed in any one calendar year; or
- 15.1.5.2 A pattern of leave occurs which suggests that the leave provision may be being abused.

15.1.6 If documentation is required, the employer shall meet with the employee, where practicable, and advise why documentation is being requested prior to implementing the need for the provision of documentation. Where documentation is required:

- 15.1.6.1 The required documentation must be given to the employer as soon as reasonably practicable which may be at a time before or after the leave has started.
- 15.1.6.2 The required document must include a statement to the effect that in the registered health practitioner's opinion, the employee was, is, or will be unfit for work during the period because of a personal illness or injury or alternatively, that the person for whom the employee is providing care and support is in need of such support because the person is ill or injured.

15.1.7 Except as otherwise provide, the personal leave entitlement may accrue from year to year so that any balance of leave not taken in any one year may be taken in a subsequent year or years. However, you are not entitled to payment for untaken personal leave on termination of your employment.

15.1.8 In addition to paid carer's leave, you are entitled to up to two days of unpaid carer's leave for each occasion that you are required to care for an immediate family member, providing your paid leave entitlements have been exhausted.

15.1.9 The Council may require employees to attend a doctor nominated by Council at Council's cost.

15.1.10 Accumulated personal leave shall be transferable on change of employment from Council to Council within New South Wales up to 13 weeks, provided that an employee shall only be entitled to transfer personal leave accumulated since the employee's last anniversary date on a pro-rata basis. Such accumulated sick leave shall only be transferable if the period of cessation of service with the Council and appointment to the service of another Council does not exceed three months. The personal leave entitlement transferred shall not exceed the maximum amount transferable as prescribed by the appropriate Agreement at the time of transfer.

- 15.1.11 Where an employee has exhausted all leave entitlements (including annual leave, long service leave and leave in lieu) due to an extended period of sickness, Council may grant, upon application by the employee, such additional paid personal leave as, in its opinion, the circumstances may warrant.
- 15.1.12 Section 50 of the Workers Compensation Act 1987 dealing with the relationship between sick leave and workers compensation applies which provides that workers compensation is to be paid in preference to sick leave if compensation is legally applicable. Payment of workers compensation overrides any payment of sick leave. Thus an employee is not entitled to be paid sick leave if he could properly claim workers compensation.
- 15.1.13 Where the parties are unable to reach agreement on the granting of personal leave (carer's leave) the Grievance and Disputes Procedures of this Agreement should be followed.
- 15.1.14 The employee shall, if required:
- 15.1.14.1 establish either by production of a medical certificate or statutory declaration, the illness of the person concerned and that the illness is such as to require care by another person; or
  - 15.1.14.2 establish by production of documentation acceptable to the Council or a statutory declaration, the nature of the emergency and that such emergency resulted in the person concerned requiring care by the employee.
- 15.1.15 In normal circumstances, an employee must not take personal leave (carer's leave) under this sub-clause where another person has taken leave to care for the same person.
- 15.1.16 An employee may elect, with the consent of the Council, to take unpaid leave for the purpose of providing care and support to a class of person set out in sub-clause 15.1.2.2 above who is ill or who requires care due to an unexpected emergency.
- 15.1.17 An employee shall, wherever practicable, give the Council notice prior to the absence of the intention to take leave, the name of the person requiring care and that person's relationship to the employee, the reasons for taking such leave and the estimated length of absence. If it is not practicable for the employee to give prior notice of absence, the employee shall notify the employer by telephone of such absence at the first opportunity on the day of absence.
- 15.1.18 The employer may, at its discretion, grant an employee sick leave at half pay if satisfied that extenuating circumstances exist. Where a public holiday falls during a period of sick leave at half pay, the public holiday shall also be paid at half pay. Further, all entitlements shall accrue during periods of sick leave at half pay on a proportionate basis.
- 15.1.19 Paid Personal Leave on Termination of Employment
- 15.1.19.1 An employee employed by Council prior to or on 26 September 2000, who has not previously waived their right to this provision, continues to have an entitlement for the payment of unused sick leave arising out of the termination of employment.
  - 15.1.19.2 In the event of the termination of service of such an employee the following payout provisions shall apply.
    - (1) Employees who commenced between 27 February 1996 and 26 September 2000

Any sick leave which was accrued between 26 September 2000 and date of termination, which remains as untaken as at the date of termination will be paid out at:

      - after 10 years 50%

- 15.1.19.3 When the service of an employee is terminated by death, the Council shall pay to the employee's estate, the monetary equivalent of any untaken sick leave standing to the employee's credit at the time of death.
- 15.1.19.4 Payment under this clause is limited to personal leave calculated to retirement age in accordance with relevant legislation and shall not be payable if the injury or illness arises out of or in the course of employment such that it is compensable under the Workers Compensation Act 1987.
- 15.1.19.5 On application to Council, an employee may request a partial payout of the entitlement prior to termination of employment. Council reserves the right to cap payments at an amount of $200,000 in any one financial year across the entire workforce.
- 15.1.19.6 Should an employee choose to request a payout prior to termination of employment, they will:
- (1) forfeit any ongoing entitlement to payout of accumulated personal leave; and
  - (2) be required to retain a minimum balance of two years personal leave entitlement as at the date of pay out. Any such retained balance will be paid out on termination of employment if unused at the date of termination.

  - (2) The needs of the job and completion of work are the most important considerations and the opportunities offered to employees by flexible working hours may only be used providing they fit in with the work situation at any given time.
  - (3) Employees must co-operate with their supervisors in planning daily arrival and departure times and flexidays so that sections are always adequately staffed during the Council's hours of business of 8.30am to 5pm.
  - (4) By Friday of each week employees are requested to complete the following week's timetable and liaise with their supervisor regarding proposed flexitime arrangements. An unpaid meal break of at least 30 minutes should be taken within the first five hours of continuous work. If unforeseen circumstances arise the meal break may be delayed but must be taken as soon as practicable, subject to the observance of appropriate work health and safety standards.
- 16.4.5.10 Employees may accumulate credit or debit hours to a maximum of their normal ordinary hours of work per week. Prior planning must occur in order to manage working hours to avoid wherever possible the situation where an employee is required to work in excess of the credit limit. However, if hours in excess of the credit limit are necessary, prior to additional hours being worked, agreement must be made between the supervisor and the employee with authorisation from the section manager with respect to these hours being considered as overtime and therefore overtime rates applying or the employee choosing to be granted leave in lieu equivalent to additional hours worked.
- 16.4.5.11 Where an employee has a debit balance in excess of their normal ordinary hours of work per week, deductions will be made from annual leave or leave without pay. Employees will be required to submit a leave form to cover the reduction in annual leave or leave without pay transaction.

- 16.4.5.14 Recording of time
- (1) Employees are required to 'sign on' by registering start time on section flex sheets when commencing work and 'sign off' by registering finish time when ceasing work. Employees must not 'sign on' on their way past the flex sheet if they are in fact not ready to commence work.
  - (2) Employees are required to record the duration of their lunchbreak if it is less than standard one hour.
  - (3) Employees must register their own time daily.
  - (4) Disciplinary procedures of this Agreement will be applied to any case of deliberate falsification of flexitime records.
  - (5) Employees attending conferences, seminars, training sessions, for a whole day will be considered as working standard hours for that day. - 19.5.12 Any existing employment arrangements for the Australian Traineeship System (ATS) or the Career Start Traineeship (CST) shall not apply to any Council bound by this Agreement, except in relation to ATS or CST trainees who commenced a traineeship with the Council before the Council was bound by this Agreement.

Insurance should include cover against workplace injury and illness. Normally the placement agency carries insurance for work experience participants and Council should ensure that the agreement is signed and a copy of the agency's certificate of currency for public liability insurance for a minimum of $10 million and noting Council's interest should be sighted prior to any work experience commencing.
- 19.6.2.2 However, where a placement agency is not involved, work experience participants should sign a similar agreement and will be covered under Council's personal accident policy.

So that work experience is valuable and measurable, it is recommended that participants are assigned to projects that cannot be accomplished with normal staffing levels. It is helpful for Council and the work experience participant to draw up a plan of activities and agree upon it before the placement begins.
- 19.6.3.2 This is relevant to university students who may apply for work experience for periods of up to three months. Desired outcomes, outlined by the university, should be provided for the student to achieve while on work experience. Alternatively, a student may apply for work experience for a number of months to complete a research project and request use of Council resources.
- 19.6.4 Financial Obligations
- 19.6.4.1 Council is under no obligation to pay work experience participants for their services. Council is obliged to reimburse out-of-pocket expenses in the same way as it would for paid employees.

19.6.5 Working Conditions

- 19.6.5.1 Working conditions for work experience participants should be the same as for paid employees. However, some variations, which facilitate their work experience program, such as time off for training and meetings or interviews with the placement agency, may be required from time to time.
- 19.6.5.2 Under no circumstances should work experience participants be used for overtime or out of hours activities.
- 19.6.5.3 The Organisation Development Section is to co-ordinate the placement.

Where the employee is not granted such leave Council shall give preference in granting annual leave or other accrued leave to attend course requirements provided that the employee gives reasonable notice of such requirements. Council may pay course fees at its discretion.
- 20.3.9 Our Learning and Development management directive, which may be reviewed from time to time, sets out how Council will manage learning and development needs in a consistent and fair manner.
- 20.3.10 Union Delegate Attendance at Council Employee Induction Training

Union Delegates who are appointed as such by their Union are entitled to attend Council employee induction training for the purposes of providing information to new employees on the Union.

An arrangement to employ a member of any Union over a non-member, or a member of another Union cannot be enforced at law. Council does not give a right of preference in employment to Union members.

Union Delegates may distribute official union documentation at the inductions for the purposes of providing information to new employees on the Union's activities.

A Union Delegate will not be provided with the opportunity to attend induction if they harass, intimidate or in any way seek to inappropriately coerce an employee to join a Union. At all times the Union Delegate must behave in accordance with Council's stated values of Respect, Integrity, Teamwork, Excellence and Safety.

20.4 Career Development

Career development is the ongoing process of managing your life, learning and work. It involves developing the skills and knowledge that enable you to plan and make informed decisions about your education, training and career choices.

Council needs staff with many different talents and contributions to cover the diversity of our organisation. We need to have the right people in the right positions with the right skills sets to contribute to our overall performance. Given our limited funding, we need to ensure that we are developing the right sort of talent for the roles and positions that will really make a difference in the future.

Council provides an environment where staff can take responsibility for their own career management and develop those needed skills as appropriate.

The traditional view that an organisation will manage employees' careers for them, that people join an organisation for life and the organisation will take care of them, is no longer valid.

The message today is clear: career development is employee owned, manager facilitated and organisation supported.

Employees need to take responsibility for their own career and career development. The manager needs to be supportive and needs to provide coaching in terms of identifying the right gap and development activities that will enable better performance and a higher level of growth and career aspiration. The organisation is responsible for creating an environment where learning and continuous learning is valued.

In order to assist staff with their career development, Council provides staff with access to a career development advisor who can assist staff with career planning.

We have also mapped clear career paths which cover all of Council's functions. Council's Job Families by Job Roles table describes the types of roles available within Council, the educational levels generally required for each level and their relationship with our salary system. This table is an indicative chart that initiates discussion about career paths and lifelong learning for employees which doesn't just limit itself to job families and is published on Council's intranet.

21. PERFORMANCE EVALUATION AND REWARD

21.1 Enterprise

- 21.1.1 It is the intention of the parties to create a flexible Agreement in which Councils can increase the overall efficiency and effectiveness of local government services.
- 21.1.2 Council develops enterprise key performance indicators which are specific to local needs which measure:
  - 21.1.2.1 the manner and process by which services are provided;
  - 21.1.2.2 both qualitative and quantitative aspects of service provision eg. community satisfaction, timeliness, service quality, output and cost data; and
  - 21.1.2.3 those indicators identified in the publication 'Comparative Information on New South Wales Local Government Councils' issued by the New South Wales Department of Local Government.

- 21.1.3 Council shall discuss enterprise key performance indicators relating to human resources activities and/or job redesign with the Consultative Committee.
- 21.1.4 Employee(s) or the Council may seek assistance from the appropriate union or association in developing and implementing enterprise key performance indicators.

21.2 Individual / Team

21.2.1 Performance Feedback – Individual Work and Development Plan (IW&DP)

21.2.1.1 The performance feedback process provides a direct link between the achievement of objectives outlined in the Council plan and those of the employee, through the provision of meaningful feedback between employees and their supervisor.

21.2.1.2 The process consists of three main stages:

- (1) joint development of objectives, behaviours and agreed commitments
- (2) progress reviews to coach, give feedback and resolve problems
- (3) an annual performance feedback session

21.2.1.3 The process has been developed through a Plan, Do, Study, Act (PDSA) team using the 9 step continuous improvement process.

21.2.1.4 Objective

- (1) The objective of the system is to provide an effective user-friendly feedback system for employees.

21.2.1.5 Principles

- (1) The performance feedback process provides staff with the opportunity to:
  - actively contribute to the achievement of Council's objectives;
  - participate in setting work objectives and commitments;
  - improve communication and feedback with managers and staff;
  - clearly understand job requirements and expected behaviours;
  - identify and pursue personal learning and development opportunities; and
  - receive recognition for achievements.

21.2.1.6 Getting Started

- (1) This performance feedback process closely aligns to what you, your team/section and Council want to achieve. In addition, many aspects of the system support the factors that make jobs satisfying:

- clear direction
- supportive environment
- challenge and meaning
- clarity
- influence
- growth and recognition
- relationship with supervisor

- (2) There are three phases to the process:

1. Planning

In the planning phase you and your supervisor work together to create a performance plan that includes:

- the results, focus areas and objectives you will achieve;
- the knowledge, skills, and agreed behaviours, drawn from the competency framework, that will help you achieve these results; and
- a development plan listing activities that will help you grow in your current job or in a new one.

Your plan needs to be linked to the Council vision, values, and strategic priorities. To make that happen, your supervisor provides you with the team/section goals, Council vision, values, and strategic priorities, and their own objectives.

The discussion you and your supervisor have during this phase is called a reaching agreement discussion because that's what you do - reach agreement on a plan.

2. Performing

In the performing phase of the performance cycle, you do your job and work toward achieving the results you've committed to. To be effective in this phase and in your job, you need to do four things:

- Track your own performance against your plan. You will need to collect evidence over time to support your performance. You can record the evidence in your evidence register. Examples of evidence may include your Learning and Development passport, samples of work, feedback from customers etc.
- Seek and act on feedback from others.
- Get coaching and support.
- Conduct at least one interim review with your supervisor to check your progress.

3. Reviewing

At the end of the performance cycle, you and your supervisor meet to discuss your accomplishments and contributions and provide performance feedback. The reviewing performance discussion is a summary of the interim progress discussions you've had up to that point, including a look at new data collected since the last discussion.

You and your supervisor will compare your actual results to the results you planned. If you and your supervisor have been tracking performance and sharing data throughout the cycle, there should be no surprises in this discussion. Instead, the review is a forward-looking discussion that focuses on what was learned, what strengths can be built on, and what areas need work.

Council recognises that the resolution of problems and complaints raised between employees and supervisors can contribute significantly to improving morale and productivity within the workplace.
- 25.2 It is Council's desire to resolve problems through a conciliatory process wherever possible. Legal action should only apply when all steps in the grievance procedure have been exhausted.

The notice period does not commence until at least 28 days after the final endorsement of the restructure by the Executive Leadership Team or Council, whichever is applicable.

29.6.5 During a period of notice of termination given by the Council, an employee shall be allowed up to one day off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment. Where required by the Council the employee shall provide proof of attendance at an interview.

29.6.6 A redundant employee shall be entitled to the payment of a job search allowance of up to the amount set out in the Allowances Table of this Agreement to meet expenses associated with seeking other employment subject to proof of expenditure or on production of an invoice, and/or other appropriate documentation. The employee's entitlement to claim the job search allowance is limited to a period of up to 12 months from their termination of service with the Council or until the employee secures alternative employment, whichever is the sooner.

29.6.7 If the employee agrees to be redeployed by Council into a lower paid position, the employee's existing salary and conditions shall be maintained for a period equivalent to the amount of notice and redundancy pay that the employee would be entitled to under this Agreement. Provided that should the employee resign during the period of salary maintenance, as provided for by this sub-clause, the balance of any notice and redundancy pay that the employee would have been entitled to for the remainder of the period of salary maintenance shall be paid on termination.

- 29.6.8 The Council shall, upon receipt of a request from an employee to show employment has been terminated, provide to the employee a written statement specifying the period of the employee's employment and the classification or the type of work performed by the employee.

- 29.6.12 Subject to an application by the Council and further order of any relevant Industrial Relations Commission, a Council may pay a lesser amount (or no amount) of severance pay than that contained in sub-clause 29.6.2 above if the Council obtains acceptable alternative employment for an employee.
- 29.6.13 Nothing in this clause shall restrict an employee with ten years' service or more and Council from agreeing to further severance payments.

29.7 Redeployment of Redundant Staff

- 29.7.1 Absolute security of employment cannot be guaranteed but it is recognised that job security is an important issue for all employees. Council therefore has a commitment to provide continuing employment wherever possible through redeployment of staff to either existing or new positions.
- 29.7.2 Redeployment may take place where the Council has made a definite decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation structure or technology that are likely to result in redundancy. Redeployment may be necessary because of changes to service provision, transfer of resources, budgetary constraints, or the deletion of services.
- 29.7.3 If an employee's job ceases to exist, every effort will be made to find alternative employment within the organisation. However, it is recognised that there will be occasions when an employee feels that the alternative employment offered may not be acceptable and may elect to take voluntary redundancy in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.
- 29.7.4 A staff member to be redeployed, who meets the essential criteria of a vacant position, will receive preference of employment. Where essential criteria is not met, the position should be advertised in accordance with Council's Recruitment and Employment management directive and Workplace Equity and Diversity management plan.
- 29.7.5 If a position(s) is identified as being suitable for filling via redeployment, the group manager will be advised that advertising the vacant position/s externally may be suspended for a short time while redeployment is considered, through an internal expression of interest as per clause 29.7.4.
- 29.7.6 If no vacant positions are identified as suitable, the Executive Leadership Team will discuss whether the particular skills and attributes of the employee(s) could be utilised within the organisation to undertake tasks currently not being done. Financial implications resulting from this discussion will require Council consideration. Should there be nothing suitable, the redundancy provisions of this agreement will be implemented, and the employee will terminate from the date the position is no longer required within the establishment.

29.7.7 Procedure

- 29.7.7.1 Council will provide access to career counselling as per clause 20.4 of this Agreement during this period and the subsequent notice period, to assist displaced employees to seek employment either within Council or externally.

This will include a discussion on:

- (1) career interests and job preference;
- (2) qualifications, skills, knowledge and experience; and
- (3) personal attributes.

- 29.7.7.2 This will identify how well the abilities of the employee meet the specific requirements of any vacant positions; and how well the employee's aspirations are aligned with the vacancies. The Organisation Development Section will advise the group manager or appropriate authorised delegate, of the outcome of the interview.

- 29.7.7.3 If the employee meets the essential requirements for a vacant position, they will be invited for interview. The interview will be conducted by the hiring manager in accordance with the Recruitment, Selection and Employment management directive. The employee will be advised prior to the interview of any testing required as part of the interview process. If the employee is recommended by the selection panel for selection, discussion will take place between the group managers involved to finalise arrangements for the transfer of the employee.
- 29.7.7.4 In some cases it may be recommended that the redeployment be for a trial period of three months to determine the suitability of the person or to assess whether the employee is satisfied with the position. An assessment will be conducted during the second month and be monitored by the Organisation Development Section who will provide a further recommendation to the group manager. If performance has been satisfactory, the position will be offered on a permanent basis. If the performance has been unsatisfactory, steps will be again taken to redeploy the person. If a suitable position is not available within a four week period, or the employee does not wish to be redeployed, the redundancy provisions of this agreement will be applied.
- 29.7.7.5 Where an employee agrees to be redeployed into a lower paid position, the employee's accumulated entitlements will be calculated at their previous higher salary rate and preserved. Accumulated entitlements will be paid at the preserved rate until they are exhausted. The preserved benefits will be taken prior to other leave entitlements.
- 29.7.7.6 If the employee has accepted the position on a permanent basis and then resigns during the period of salary maintenance, the balance of any redundancy pay that the employee would have been entitled to for the remainder of the period of salary maintenance will be paid on termination.
- 29.7.7.7 If the employee resigns during the assessment period, redundancy pay that the employee would have been entitled to before commencing the new position, will be paid on termination.
- 29.7.7.8 Use of a Council vehicle is attached to a position and not an employee. An employee who has current provision of a vehicle, either through a motor vehicle allowance or commuter use, will forfeit such use on the commencement of the new position if a vehicle is not a requirement of the new position and in accordance with the provisions of the Motor Vehicle and Other Related Benefits Management Directive, as amended from time to time.
- 29.7.7.9 The following example may serve to demonstrate these provisions.
- (1) Mary, has been employed by Council for 4.5 years and has commuter use of a Council vehicle.
  - (2) Mary's position, currently grade 16, has been made redundant.
  - (3) Mary has accepted an alternative position at a grade 13 without a vehicle.
  - (4) Mary's accumulated entitlements will be preserved at a grade 16 rate.
  - (5) Any annual, sick or long service leave taken by Mary will be paid at a grade 16 rate until the accumulated entitlements are exhausted.
  - (6) Any leave taken by Mary after this time will be paid at a grade 13 rate.
  - (7) If Mary resigns 14 weeks after taking up her new position, she will not be entitled to be paid any redundancy pay in addition to her entitlements.
  - (8) Mary's commuter use agreement will terminate on her commencement of the new position.
  - (9) If Mary resigns during her assessment period, she would be entitled to 12 weeks redundancy pay.

29.8 Job Redesign

- 29.8.1 It is Council's policy that prior to any position being re-evaluated, approval of the group manager is required to justify the cause of the redesign, the proposal of the line manager and the consequences of the approval. A redesigned position that attracts a changed salary grade following a job evaluation is to be referred to the Executive Leadership Team for approval.
- 29.8.2 If the purpose of the job and the general spectrum of duties is not significantly altered and the position increases by no more than one grade, then the incumbent will continue in that position. Where the redesign involves a more substantial change in the composition of the job (not just the size of the position), appointment to the position will be dependent upon the employee's knowledge and skill level. If the essential selection criteria (Skills, Knowledge and Capacity) for the position is not met by the incumbent, the position may be advertised providing an achievable learning and development plan cannot be completed by the incumbent to address competence within a reasonable timeframe. Determination of whether or not a position will be advertised will be made by the Executive Leadership Team after receiving advice from Organisation Development and following consultation with the affected employee and their union.

- 29.8.3 Appointment to the position will be by merit. If essential selection criteria (skills, knowledge and capacity) is not met by internal applicants, the position will be advertised externally. Internal applicants may apply for the position. Should an employee be displaced, then redeployment or redundancy will follow.
- 29.8.4 For any redesigned position, an assessment of the employee's competency level will be undertaken to determine the correct salary level. An employee will remain on current salary until entry level skills are met. (This includes minimum qualification criteria).
- 29.8.5 If an employee agrees to be redeployed into a lower paid position, the employee's existing salary and conditions will be maintained for a period defined in this Agreement.
- 29.8.6 In a merger situation where there were two similar jobs and now only one job is needed, selection is to be based on merit, following internal expressions of interest. If essential selection criteria (skills, knowledge and capacity) is not met, the position will be advertised externally. If an employee is displaced, redeployment or redundancy will occur in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.
- 29.8.7 Group or Section Restructure
- 29.8.7.1.1 Where a decision has been made to introduce major changes in the organisation structure that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the group manager will notify the employees who may be affected and the unions to which they belong.
- 29.8.7.1.2 The group manager and the unions will discuss the most appropriate method of filling new positions that may be created under the new structure. This would involve seeking expressions of interest from internal staff for all new positions created and/or advertising the vacancies externally.
- 29.8.7.2 The General Manager will make the final decision after consideration of equity and overall staffing issues.

30. COMPETITIVE TENDERING

- 30.1 Competitive tendering is the calling of tenders by Council for the provision of service(s) that are currently being performed by Council employees where Council's in-house service unit submits a bid as well as external contractors. Council then makes its decision based on the tender bids about who will provide the service.
- 30.2 Where employee(s) who are adversely affected by the proposed changes request the employer's assistance to submit an in-house bid and the employer refuses that request, the employer shall provide the reason(s) in writing.

31. COUNCIL AGREEMENTS

- 31.1 The parties agree to review operations at the Council level on an ongoing basis with a view to providing enhanced flexibility and efficiency and to meet the particular working needs of the Council and its employees
- 31.2 The terms of any agreement reached between the parties shall substitute for the provisions of the Agreement provided that:
- 31.2.1 the agreement does not provide less than the entry level rates of pay under the salary system;
- 31.2.2 the agreement is consistent with relevant legislation and current wage fixing principles; and
- 31.2.3 the agreement shall be processed in accordance with sub-clause 31.3 of this clause. Provided further that, where the agreement proposes to vary Agreement provisions the agreement shall be processed in accordance with the Enterprise Arrangement Principle.
- 31.3 A Council Agreement shall be processed as follows:
- 31.3.1 The affected employees shall be notified prior to the commencement of negotiations.
- 31.3.2 The unions shall be notified prior to the commencement of negotiations.
- 31.3.3 The agreement has been genuinely arrived at by negotiation without compulsion.
- 31.3.4 The agreement shall be committed to writing and shall include a date of operation and a date of expiration.
- 31.3.5 The Council, an appropriate employee representative and the appropriate union(s) shall sign the agreement.
- 31.3.6 Any party to a Council Agreement may at any stage during the above process refer the matter to any applicable Industrial Relations Commission.
