LEMON TREE PASSAGE OLD SCHOOL CENTRE

Originally Lemon Tree Passage School, the first provisional school on the Tilligerry Peninsula and built in 1954 by the Education Dept. on land gifted to the community, in a unique, bushland setting, by Port Stephens Central Land Development Co. Pty. Ltd. As school numbers grew, additional buildings were added, but in 1983 after a new Tanilba Bay school opened, this school became surplus. The community rallied and in 1984 the Health Dept. leased the main building from the Education Dept. The various community groups and library were allocated rooms, and the Tilligerry Community Centre committee was formed to manage and maintain the centre. In 2011 the name was changed to the Lemon Tree Passage Old School Centre, a name which reflects the past history and culture of the centre and location. Today, the volunteer 355c Management Committee still manage and maintain the centre in conjunction with and on behalf of Port Stephens Council.
